LYRIC

"The Lure" which will be seen at the Lyric theatre all next week, was written by George Scarborough, formerly a newspaper man, who became a United States Secret Service agent, and by chance was assigned to work on the "White Slave" investigations for the Federal government. conditions he found moved him deep-ly and he has been responsible for more than one wealthy man becoming interested in the suppression of the white slave traffic.

After he had been at work as a Secret Service man Scarborough began to tell his old newspaper friends that he had found things that he had never been able to get at in his forme newspaper capacity, and he constanty ly said that he wished he was a great enough writer to be able to write a book that would read as a warning. Finally he began to work on a play, having decided the stage would be the best medium for sending the message of warning he thought ought to go to every home. "If I could feel," he said to a friend just before the production, "that my play, 'The Lure' would be to white slavery what 'Uncle Tom's Cabha' was to black slavery, I would know at I have accomplished something the while in life."

"BIRTH OF NATION" PRODUCTION COMES WEEK OF OCTOBER 4

Louis B. Mayer, general manager of the American Feature Film Co., who recently arranged for the presentation of "The /Birth of a Nation" films at Poli's theatre, today announced that the big photo-spectacle will be here for the week commencng October 4. There will be matinees daily.

Mr. Mayer, who was in the city for a short time today was enthusiastic over securing the use of the Poli theatre, because of its big seating apacity and general adaptability for the presentation of the pictures.

According to Mr. Mayer, "The Birth of a Nation" has just completed a three weeks' engagement in Providence, and will play a return stand of three weeks more in the near future. Thirty thousand people saw the films in Portland, Me., last week. Mr. Mayer will return here next week to complete arrangements for
